

Conference on Central Banks, Financial Stability and Legal Issues in East Asia

Conference on Central Banks, Financial Stability and Legal Issues in East Asia

East Asia Institute, Ludwigshafen, May 23rd, 2014

Am 23.Mai 2014 findet in den Räumen des Ostasieninstituts von 9.00 – 17.00 Uhr die Konferenz "Central Banks, Financial Stability and Legal Issues in East Asia" statt. Ein aktueller Überblick über die Referenten und Themen findet sich unten. Die Konferenzsprache ist Englisch. Interessenten können sich unter conference@oai.de für die Veranstaltung anmelden, die Teilnehmerzahl ist jedoch begrenzt.

Participants and Topics (as of March 2014)

Mr. Patrick Hess

European Central Bank

Topic: Shadow Banking and Financial Stability in China

Prof. Dr. Takashi Kubota

Waseda University, Japan

Topic: Extraterritorial Impacts on Japanese Financial Institutions by the US economic laws: AML, FCPA, and FATCA

Dr. Knut Benjamin Pißler

Max Planck Institute for comparative and international Private Law, Hamburg

Topic: History and legal environment of the People's Bank of China

Prof. Dr. Gunther Schnabl

University of Leipzig

Topic: China's Exchange Rate and Financial Repression: The Conflicted Emergence of the Renminbi as an International Currency

Mr. Edi Setijawan

Indonesia Financial Services Authority

Topic: Banking Master Plan in response to the banking crisis - the case of Indonesia in the period 2004-2013

Prof. Dr. Helmut Siekmann

Frankfurt University, Institute for Monetary and Financial Stability

Topic: Central Banking – The Legal Framework in Europe

Mr. Frank Thiem

Deutsche Bundesbank

Topic: Macroprudential Policy and its Instruments

Dr. Ulrich Volz

German Development Institute

Topic: Navigating the Trilemma: Inflation Targeting, Financial Stability and Exchange Rate Stability - Central Banking in East Asia

Prof. Dr. Franz Waldenberger

Munich University

Topic: Central Bank Independence in Times of Financial Risk

Dr. Xuechun Zhang

People's Bank of China

Topic: Budget Law and Shadow Banking in China

Conference Organizers:

Prof. Dr. Frank Rövekamp

Ludwigshafen University, East Asia Institute
Prof. Dr. Moritz Bälz
Frankfurt University, Interdisciplinary Centre for East Asian Studies

FaLang translation system by Faboba

<< zurück | Seitenanfang

gefördert von: 